++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain for some on Tuesday but improving on Wednesday.

Today:
Cloudy with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle over the western hills, along with patchy hill fog. The odd spot of rain alternating with brighter intervals elsewhere, with the best chance of any prolonged dry spells in Northumberland. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining cloudy in the west, with patchy hill fog and drizzle. Largely dry with clear spells developing elsewhere but a chance of fog in prone valleys and around dawn. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
A fair day, with sunny periods in the morning. Any cloud in the west will lift and break, leading to the odd afternoon shower. Warm. A dry, largely clear evening. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Dry and bright or sunny on Thursday. Breezy, increasingly cloudy on Friday, with rain arriving from the west late. A cloudy, damp start on Saturday, then sunny spells and showers.
